THE MONDAY REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION
202 SKYLAND BLVD
TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA 35405

Lucy Kubiszyn
October 4, 1982

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Record Series: Campus Newspaper
File: EG 1-12-5
Date: 9-28-95

DON'T FORGET! The Shelton State Alumni Association will meet Tuesday, October 5, in room 87 at the junior college. Be sure and come, bring a sandwich; we'll furnish drinks and cookies. Dr. Randall Jarrell will speak on "Stress Management."

The Alumni Association is open to anyone who has attended Shelton State for at least one quarter.

****

STUDENT LIFE NEWS

The Student Life Association at Shelton State has elected officers for the 1982-1983 year with Shelton sophomore Jane Couto leading the group as president. Other officers are: Lisa Plowman, vice-president; Pam Hendrix, secretary; Pam Turner, treasurer; Bert Stephens, chaplan; and Keith Kirkland, historian.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday, October 6, in room 12 (Dean Lee's office). Plans for a Halloween party for Shelton students will be discussed. Everyone is invited!

****

ATTENTION RTI STUDENTS!

Gary Utz from the school of Community and Allied Health University of Alabama/Birmingham will be here on:
Monday October 4 5-8 p.m.
Thursday October 7 9 a.m. - 12 noon

At this time, he will answer questions concerning allied health programs at UAB including the RTI Linkage program.

****

MATHEMATICS REVIEW SCHEDULED

Shelton's first mathematics review for the ACT and SAT exams will be held on Monday (Oct. 25), Wednesday (Oct. 27), and Thursday (Oct. 28). Classes will meet from 6:30 -9:30 p.m. and the cost is $50 per student. Classes will be conducted by Camille Cochrane and Guesna Dohrman.

THE DEADLINE FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE AFRO AMERICAN CULTURAL ASSOCIATION WILL BE OCTOBER 13, 1982. STUDENTS WHO ARE INTERESTED SHOULD CONTACT CYNTHIA HASKINS, SECRETARY; JEANETTE HARGROVE (ROOM 7) OR BESSIE GERMAN (ROOM 61).

****

DON'T FORGET INTRAMURAL TENNIS! DEADLINE TO SIGN UP FOR THE ROUND-ROBIN PLAY WILL BE OCT. 4 $AT SEE SUSAN GRAVES, HUMPHREY LEE OR BRUCE BIZZOCO FOR MORE INFORMATION.

****

READ THE MONDAY REPORT FOR SHELTON NEWS NOW

SHELTON NEWSPAPER NEEDS HELP

The COURIER, Shelton State student newspaper, will have a staff and reporter meeting on Wednesday, October 6, in the writing lab. All members and interested parties are encouraged to attend and participate. For more information, contact Rob Hudson, editor, 345-3292.

TIME IS RUNNING OUT --- to buy season memberships for the TUSCALOOSA COMMUNITY PLAYERS productions for the year. Membership prices are $10 for Shelton students and active alumni and $15 for faculty and general public. You need to hurry and order, however, in order to be assured of the seats you want. Tickets may be purchased from Paul Looney, Arthur Howington, or Nanci Stewart.

Scheduled for production this year by the Players are: "Sweet Charity," by Neil Simon; "Luann Hampton Laverty Oberlander," by Preston Jones; "Inherit the Wind," by Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee; "Blithe Spirit," by Noel Coward.

I'M ON THE ROAD AGAIN – the theme of Dean Umphrey as he begins the all important process of high school recruiting! The next few weeks will be spent in visiting all of the area high school spreading the story of Shelton State. On Tuesday, October 5, he'll be at Career Day at Central High East, Southern Academy in Greensboro, and Career Day at the University of Alabama in Memorial Colisium. On Wednesday, October 6, he'll visit Warrior Academy and on Thursday, October 7, he'll be at Pickens County High School, Pickens Academy, and Demopolis Academy. On Friday, October 8, he'll be at West End Christian in Tuscaloosa.

A REPRESENTATIVE FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH ALABAMA WILL BE IN THE STUDENT CENTER AT SHELTON STATE ON MONDAY, OCTOBER 4, AND BUDDY ALLEN FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF MONTEVALLO WILL WILL BE HERE ON OCTOBER 11.

SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE TO MEET

The Shelton State Scholarship Committee will meet on Wednesday, October 13, at 10 a.m. in room 87. This committee is composed of community leaders who act as an advisory group to the college. If you are interested in this program and would like to meet these people, we invite you to come by and have a cup of coffee and visit with them.

ALL STUDENTS SHOULD COME BY DEAN LEE'S OFFICE AND PICK UP ACT CARDS AND PARKING DECALS IF THEY HAVE NOT ALREADY DONE SO .

OCTOBER 13 IS THE LAST DAY TO DROP CLASSES WITHOUT PENALTY YOUR ADMISSION FILE MUST BE COMPLETE BY THIS TIME.

Don't forget the Afro American Gospel Choir! Rehersals are on Wednesday nights from 7-9 p.m. For more information, contact Everett McCorvey.

IT'S SHELTON STATE DAYS AGAIN

Shelton State Days at McFarland Mall will be held on Saturday, October 30, from 9 a.m. - 9 p.m. This is the only event of this type scheduled for Fall or Winter quarter. We will, however, be at University Mall in the spring.

I will be getting in touch with all of the college's organizations and groups so please plan on participating. If anyone would like to help with the planning and the leg work, please contact me or Dean Umphrey.

ART EXHIBIT

An art exhibition by Harlan Hubbard will be shown in the library October 1 - 29. This exhibition of prints, watercolors, and drawings is circulated by the Southern Arts Federation and funded in part by the National Endowment for the Arts and the Alabama State Council on the Arts and Humanities.

SHELTON STATE NEW FACULTY MEMBERS

Eight new full-time instructors have been added to the faculty at Shelton State Junior College this fall: Robbyn Gourdourze, math; Eugenia Roberts, math; Robert McWhirter, accounting; Alan Mallory, early childhood development; Louis Skipper, English; Gene Plott, physics; and Kathryn Styres, Kathleen Huttlinger, nursing.

Gourdourze taught at George Wallace Junior College before coming to Shelton State and has been the recipient of a National Science Foundation Grant at the University of Alabama. She received her BS in science from Auburn University and her MA from Indiana State.

Roberts received her BS and MA degrees from the University of Alabama. She has taught at Northport Junior High and part-time at Shelton State before obtaining full-time status.

McWhirter comes to Shelton State after 32 years in public accounting as a certified public accountant. Active in public affairs in Tuscaloosa, McWhirter is a graduate of the University of Alabama.

Alan Mallory, director of the new early childhood develop= ment program at Shelton, received his undergraduate and MA degrees from the University and his doctorate from Nova University. Mallory was director of the head start program in Tuscaloosa and has taught child development at Jacksonville State, Eastern Kentucky, and Stillman College.

In addition to teaching English at Shelton, Skipper has served as writer-in-residence to the college. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Alabama, his MA in English from Hollins College, and his MFA from the University of Iowa's Writer's Workshop.

Gene Plott will head the new physics department at Shelton this year after teaching at Brewer State and Lawson State Junior College. Plott has his BS and MA degrees from the University and is currently working on his PhD from UAB.

Kathryn Styres and Kathy Huttlinger will be the instructors in Shelton's new Associate Degree in Nursing. Styres received her undergraduate degree from Sanford University and her MA from Mississippi University for Women. Huttlinger received her MA in nursing from UAB and was employed by the Tuscaloosa Health Department before joining Shelton State this fall.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

TODD SPEAKS TO SEMINAR

Don Todd, Specialist, Management and Supervision, Shelton State Community College Technical Assistance Program, was a panel moderator at a seminar sponsored by the American Society for Training and Development in Birmingham recently. The subject discussed by the panelduring the four-day event was "Total Organization Involvement (T.O.I) - the KEY to Performance and Productivity Improvement."

For the past 19 years, Todd has worked with businesses, industry, service organizations and governmental agencies in thef field of supervisory training and management development.

FIRE INSPECTOR I SCHOOL
October 13-15, 1982

This program will benefit fire inspectors, insurance inspectors, building, or anyone interested in fire prevention measures. Several important topics not normally considered will be discussed and their importance to the inspector will be stressed.

Registration will begin at 9 a.m; the the fee is $25 per person.

NFA – BUILDING CONSTRUCTION FOR FIRE SUPPRESSION FORCES

October 16-17, 1982

This course provides an introduction to the basic construction principles and the special characteristics of wood and ordinary construction as they concern the fire service. The primary emphasis in on improving the fire officer's ability to ensure firefighter safety by recognizing common causes and indicators of failure or other hazards related to building construction. An understanding of the course material will improve operational effectiveness as the fire officer will be able to better predict the overall reaction of a building to fire conditions.

Registration will begin at 8 a.m. and the fee is $10 per person.

In an effort to better communicate the news to all facets of Shelton State Community College, the MONDAY REPORT is beginning to include news from the Fire College, Shelton State Technical Division, as well as the Junior College. All news for the MONDAY REPORT should be turned into me by Thursday noon.

Lucy Kubiszyn